

Ceramic Sculpture Rubric

Name _____ Class Period _____

Category	Exemplary	Proficient	Below Proficient	Not yet
Skill in applying ceramic concepts and techniques	•Demonstrates all concepts and techniques taught with attention to careful finishing in each step of construction; followed the guidelines of the project	•Concepts and techniques that were taught were evident in the sculpture but could have been developed more clearly;followed the guidelines of the project.	•Concepts and techniques that were taught were minimally evident in the sculpture; some of the guidelines were not followed.	•Weak understanding of the concepts and techniques taught;did not follow the guidelines of the project.
Skill in creating conic sections for the sculpture	•Demonstrates correct conical dissection with skill and independence.	•Demonstrate correct conical dissection with teacher support.	•Demonstrates conical dissection with inaccuracy and needs teacher support.	•Demonstrates weak or no understanding of conical dissection.
Use of color and texture	•Color, texture and form choices demonstrated expressiveness, added visual interest, and supported the intentions for the mood/emotion represented in the finished sculpture.	•Color, texture and form choices support the intentions for the mood/emotion represented in the finished sculpture.	•Color, texture, and form choices were inconsistent/confusing for supporting the mood/emotion represented in the finished sculpture	•Color, texture, and form choices were not made based on the mood/emotion of the sculpture.

Additional Comments: